

OUR LADY OF SORROWS SCHOOL LIBRARY NEWS

February 1, 2012

Dear Parents,

In order to continue pursuing our goal of promoting literacy, we will be having a school-wide event called "Character Dress-Up Day" on Tuesday, February 14th, 2012. In lieu of 'Red Day' (where students come dressed in red), they are invited to come to school dressed as one of their favourite characters from a book. This day offers an opportunity for students to learn about new characters from books their very own peers are reading. Students who dress up as a character must bring their book to school. There is no cost for this day. Students who do not wish to participate in "Character Dress-Up day" need to come to school in proper school uniform.

Throughout the day, students will be given the opportunity to discuss their character, read from their book and simply celebrate the importance of books and love of reading! We will be discussing examples of characters that students may want to dress up as, as well as appropriateness, during library classes this week.

If you have any questions regarding this day or any other concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Happy Reading!
